

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Jefferson County

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County is now celebrating its 100th year of educating the youth, families, farmers, and communities using research-based knowledge for practical application and lifelong learning. We look forward to continuing to educate you with the latest research-based information for another century.

While we do receive public funding to help with the costs of our programs, your financial support has always been valued and very much appreciated. Please consider supporting our educational programs for the next year by making a contribution to Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County using the form below. Thank you for your support.
